

Lost and Damaged Parcel Policy

Damaged Parcel

Customers should document visible damage by taking photographs of the outer packaging, internal packaging, and damaged item.

Report Damage

Damage should be reported to the sender or courier support as soon as possible. The applicable claim time limit should be checked before submitting a claim.

Lost Parcel

If a shipment is suspected to be lost, the customer should provide the tracking number and contact customer support to initiate an investigation.

Claims

A claim may require proof of value, shipment details, photographs, and other supporting evidence.
