

Return and Refund Policy

Return Request

A return request should be submitted through customer support or the applicable return portal within the stated return period.

Condition of Parcel

The parcel should be retained with its packaging and supporting documents until the return request is reviewed.

Refund

After an eligible return is approved and processed, the refund is issued according to the applicable payment and refund procedure.

Proof

Customers may be asked to provide the order number, tracking number, photographs, or other proof related to the return.
